JACK MILLER DIES FROM HEART ATTACK

Stricken with heart trouble in his room shortly before ten o'clock Friday night, Jack Miller, for six years candy maker for Romylane, passed away before medical aid could reach him.

When he felt the attack coming on, Mr. Miller started for Dr. Gray's office but succumbed almost as soon as he reached there.

The deceased was 72 years of age, a man of quiet habits and well respected by all who knew him. A son arrived from the state of Washington to take charge of the funeral arrangements and services were held at the Old Mission with interment in the Monterey cemetery. Freeman's Mortuary was in charge.

Monterey Mourns Death Of Popular Mayor

Carmel friends were saddened Sunday afternoon when word reached this city of the sudden death of Jack Steward, mayor of Monterey, and prominent throughout the peninsula.

Mayor Steward and his bride of three months were leaving the home of Mrs. Thomas Doud to come to Carmel to visit friends when he was striken and died within a few minutes.

Death is said to be due to blood clot caused from high blood pressure reaching the heart.

Funeral arrangements were in charge of Pedlesan's Mortuary.

Miss Marjorie Collis With Etta Stackpole

Miss Marjorie Collis, for the past two years in the Stackpole's San Jose store, has come to Carmel to assist Mrs. Etta Stackpole in the Carmel store.

Miss Cllis will be a welcome addition to Carmel dramatic circles, she having worked with the State College Players in San Jose, both in taking character parts and in acting as scenewright. She designed the sets for "From Morn to Midnight," which was probably witnessed by some of the Carmel people, and she played Marthy Owen in "Anna Christie." Miss Collis attended the California School of Fine Arts and has an A. B. in art from the state college. She is also a member of the Players' Guild.

R. W. White and wife of New York have arrived at the Monterey Peninsula Club and will occupy their home there for awhile.

Dr. and Mrs. McNown of Hollister spent the week-end with Attorney and Mrs. George Ross.

Miss Emily Martin Bride Of Mr. Leonard Williams

At a quiet wedding Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock in the Del Monte Chapel, Miss Emily Martin became the bride of Mr. Leonard Williams. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Harold Grimshaw.

The attractive bride was attired in a burnt orange suit with a swagger coat and brown accessories to match. She wore a corsage of violets.

Mr. and Mrs. Hatton Martin were the attendants of the bride and groom.

Mrs. Williams is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Martin of Carmel Valley. She is a graduate of the Monterey High School with the class of 1930, and also attended San Mateo Junior College.

Mr. Williams is the son of Charles Williams of Monterey and is a Monterey High School graduate.

The couple left immediately following the ceremony for an unknown destination. Upon their return they will reside in the valley where Mr. Williams is engaged in farming.

Present at the ceremony were: Mr. and Mrs. William E. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Hatton Martin and Miss Harriet Hatton.

White Robin Makes Appearance

Considerable interest has been aroused lately over the appearance of a white robin in some of the orchards of the valley. The entire plumage of the robin is white with the exception of the breast which is cherry red. This white robin has been seen by a number of people and is quite a novel sight as it flits from tree to tree among the other robins.

Robert Henry Martin Died Wednesday

Robert Henry Martin, former resident of the valley, passed away early Wednesday morning at the Salinas valley hospital. His death was due to a stroke suffered several weeks ago.

He was born at the Old Martin ranch near the Mission, July 20, 1875. He moved to Neponset in 1895 where he has made his home since that time.

He is survived by his widow and two children, Kenneth and Vivian Martin; a sister, Mrs. Isabel Leidig of Carmel and the following brothers; Roy, James, William and Andrew of Carmel Valley and Carmel Martin of Monterey.

His many friends in the community will be sorry to hear of his death.

Song of My Heart

When you are cross with me, dear,
My life with dread is fraught;
My heart, as lead, is heavy
And I wonder why I ever thought
That you should care for me!

But when you look at me, dear,
With love-light in your eyes,
My heart is filled with happiness,
I'm thrilled with new surprise
That you should care for me!

That you should care for me, dear,
That you should care for me!
Nothing I have ever done
Could merit all life's joys in one—
That you should care for me!

CARMEL'S OPPORTUNITY

Carmel has an opportunity this year to celebrate an event that is Carmel's exclusive privilege to do something typically and entirely in keeping with Carmel traditions.

The one hundred and fiftieth anniversary of Father Serra's death, founder of Carmel Mission, is to be observed with a pilgrimage and pageant having behind it official church sanction and the cooperation of leading civic, fraternal and social organizations of the state.

It will bring to Carmel thousands of visitors—and it is going to mean that Carmel will be in the lime-light not only in the state, but the entire nation will be interested in the event.

It is none too soon to begin plans for the job to be done right is a big—although pleasant undertaking.

The initial committee appointed by Mayor Catlin and the city council is composed of Frank Sheridan, George Marion, Frederick Burt, D. W. Staniford and Father O'Connell.

It is a committee of men that can do things IF they get any cooperation at all. They are all men of exceptional ability and experience and have a strong, unwavering loyalty to all things Carmel. It is too early yet for details—but one thing is vital—DO YOUR PART.

THE 5 CENT TELEPHONE TOLL

Councilman Jordan was appointed at the last council meeting to investigate the matter of abolishing the five-cent toll between Carmel, Monterey and Pacific Grove now charged by the telephone company. The toll is something of a nuisance in itself but any change in the charge should be carefully considered in the effect it would have on local businesses.

Monterey and Pacific Grove merchants are naturally eager for free toll service. It would increase their business from Carmel to the detriment of our merchants—and there is also the possibility of increased telephone rates if the toll is abolished.

FINES FOR DRUNKEN DRIVER

Judge Wood has been criticized recently for imposing an alternative sentence of a $200 fine or 90 days in jail against a drunken driver and while it is a stiff penalty to pay, the fact is, the sentence was the minimum the Judge could impose.

Morally speaking, and without the slightest desire to criticize the court, the sentence was too light. A drunken driver of a high powered car is a potential murderer of innocent people and it is an offense calling for drastic punishment and prompt, courageous action on the part of the courts is the only protection the public has against the menace. More power to Judge Wood.

Preliminary Plans For Serra Pilgrimage Made

Serra Pilgrimage Plans are under way! Celebrating the 150th anniversary of the death of Father Serra August 28, Carmel will unite in a grand pageant and general celebration.

For the first time in more than a hundred years, the Carmel Mission is an independent parish, having been made such the latter part of October, when Father Michel O'Connell was sent here as resident priest.

Heretofore the Serra Pilgrimage has been instituted and held in Monterey and has been taken from various environments. This year the pageant will deal with Father Serra's life in Carmel. An effort will be made to produce a dignified series of the episodes in his history on this spot.

"I believe," said Father O'Connell at the council meeting last night," that we can produce conditions and effects that will be for the honor of Carmel."

Father O'Connell plans to appeal to every citizen in Carmel for co-operation. The whole city will be asked to "go Spanish," to talk Pageant and to live Pageant.

According to Father O'Connell, the Native Sons in San Francisco have announced their plans to raise funds to help in the restoration of the mission. He stated at the council meeting that the roof of the building was in bad repair and would have to be taken care of.

Father Serra was described as being the "foremost and greatest man in efforts to civilize the Indians of California, a man universally revered."

COMMUNITY TEAMS WIN ONE AND LOSE ONE

In a score of 26 to 14 Carmel Community Team No. 2 won from the Watsonville team in a basketball contest Saturday night. Carmel players were Harbolt, Bowen, Hitchcock, Wilder and Wills.

In a recent game between Team No. 1 and the Monterey baptists, the local team lost in a score of 31 to 13.

FRANCISCA N. LEIDIG TO APPEAR AT PINE INN

Francisco Nason Leidig will give a concert at Pine Inn on the night of Friday, February 9.

Many Carmel people have heard Mrs. Leidig and all are enthusiastic in their praise of her voice, so that there will likely be a large attendance.

The entertainment is under the auspices of the Old Mission Guild.

Mrs. Alfred Wilson Clark secured a divorce from her husband Tuesday, Feb. 6, and asked for the restoration of her maiden name, Remy Carpen.

Carmel Dollars To Be Retired Soon

After providing 500 days of work for our unemployed and givving to Carmel $1,000 worth of improvements, the Carmel Dollars are to be retired, according to Bernard Rowntree who has been one of the moving factors in getting the most out of the issue of 1,000 of these paper dollars about a year ago.

Subscriptions are being taken among the merchants for $75 and among the citizens for $75, it being estimated that $150 will retire the dollars now in circulation, and about two-thirds of the amount has been subscribed. Eight hundred fifteen have been retired but since some have been kept as souvenirs it is impossible to tell exactly the amount needed, but Mr. Rowntree asked the Sun to announce that should there be a surplus it will handed over to the Red Cross for its special employment fund.

The John R. McGees will arrive today from Scotland for a stay in Pebble Beach.

COMMUNITY GUILD TO GIVE CARD PARTY

A "Pillowslip" whist party will be held by the Community Guild next Monday night, Feb. 12, at the Manzanita club, the prizes being beautiful, handmade pillow slips which may be seen in a window directly across from the postoffice.

The Guild, judging from their parties in the past, can safely offer a delightful evening to all who attend. Admission will be 35 cents.

MASONS ENJOY POTLUCK AT CLUB TUESDAY NITE

Carmel Masons enjoyed a potluck supper at the club Thursday night, with about 35 present.

After the delicious repast, at which everybody sampled every dish, cards were played during the evening.

Mrs. Ann James and G. W. McFarland of the Town and Country Shop attended the fashion show in San Francisco Monday and Tuesday.

CITY COUNCIL MEETS DISCUSSES PAGEANT

Many things of interest were discussed at the city council meeting last night, foremost among which was the Serra Pageant to be observed this year in Carmel, this being the first year that Carmel Mission has been an independent organization.

The direction of the program and pageant will be under the following committee appointed by the council: Frank Sheridan, D. W. Staniford, Frederick Burt, George Marion and Father Michel O'Connell.

Resolutions of sympathy in the death of Mayor Steward of Monterey were drawn up and signed by the council.

The matter of recommending positions through the city to be filled by CWS was ably presented by Mrs. Joseph Schoeninger and Rev. Dorsett and it is possible that the city will ask for supervisors in the work recently laid out and printed in Carmel Sun for Carmel's summer recreational program.

Mrs. J. B. McGrury, for the Business Men's Association, asked the council to provide a patrol, life line and a boat at the beach this summer. The Council taking the matter under advisement, decided that it could not furnish a life line nor boat but would ask for patrol under CWS. It seems that under the law, any thing on the part of the city that might be interpreted as an invitation to bathe at the beach makes the city responsible for damage in case of accident.

The patrol would be instructed to warn bathers against the treachery of the undertow and to see that the children were not molested and in general to keep order on the beach.

A letter was read from the library trustees asking the reappointment of Mrs. K. G. Rendtorff as a member of their board and she was made the unanimous choice of the council.

John Jordan was appointed to take up the matter of the abolishing of the five-cent telephone toll between Carmel, Monterey and Paciifc Grove with the members of the committee recently appointed to look into the rental paid for hydrants to the Monterey County Water company.

The council will hold a public hearing Friday the 16th on the question of business licenses and every business house should be represented.

Miss Fortier had been a member of the Oakland school department for more than 30 years and for the past 25 summers had occupied a cottage in Carmel. Of all the summer visitors, she was probably best known. She visited here a little more than a week ago.

MANY WHALES PRESENT; DRIVE SARDINES IN

People who live along the coast have been enjoying the antics of the whales which have appeared in unusual numbers this season. They also seem to come much nearer to shore this season.

The fishermen are also benefitting from the presence of the whales since it is thought that they drive the sardines in toward shore and for the first time in many years large hauls of sardines are taken within a short distance from the canneries, just outside the breakwater.

Due to the recent controversies in Carmel regarding the Sunset school as an earthquake hazard, an address made last week by Dr. Heath before the Monterey Peninsula Rotary Club, has caused a great deal of comment.

TESTED LIGHT for BETTER SIGHT

EVERY SECOND after the lights are turned on in your house your eyes are busy. Each pair of eyes in your household is likewise busy. How hard these eyes have to work because of poor light, or how soon eye strain will mean the first or another pair of glasses for some member of your family, you have no means of knowing. How much harm is being done by the wrong kind of light, bare light that causes glare, you may only feel because eyes begin to hurt or headaches start.

Now the lighting in your home can be tested scientifically by the Sight Meter. By means of this delicate instrument the proper light can be prescribed for your eyes and the work they have to do in your home.

Ask to have a representative of this company call. He will bring with him the scientific new Sight Meter. To give your home Tested Light for Better Sight, he will do this:

He will place the Sight Meter on the newspaper or magazine page you are reading. Then he may say this: "You have too much direct light on the white paper. It produces glare. The light is too bright." Again he may test the light by a desk where children study. Here is shadow. Here is not enough light. Eye strain is being caused here.

Every place in every room where Tested Light can bring Better Sight will be tested in the same careful manner. To have scientifically better lighting in your home, fill out the coupon below and mail it today.

P. T.-A. DINNER FOR CARMEL PARENTS

Carmel housewives are urged to take an evening off next week, February fifteenth, and bring the family to the P. T. A. dinner which will be served at six-thirty o'clock in the old auditorium at Sunset school. In addition to a delicious dinner prepared by the P. T. A. cooks for the attractive sum of thirty-five cents, the evening will provide an opportunity for the always enjoyable informal get-together with parents, teachers, and friends.

In case any slight profit remains, after the expense of the dinner has been met, the money is to go toward the P. T. A. social welfare fund. Probably few people in Carmel are aware of the work being carried on by the P. T. A. in its attempt to provide food, clothing, and other needs of some of Carmel's children. Heretofore this work has been made possible chiefly through contributions of various individuals. But, since the funds of the social welfare committee are almost exhausted, and private donations are lessened, it is important to raise money in any way posible.

Only a limited number can be served in the old auditorium so tickets for the dinner are being sold in advance. Those planning to attend are advised to communicate with Mrs. John Plank, president of the P. T. A., or to make reservations through their children. In addition to the dinner next Thursday night, there will be a food sale conducted by Mrs. John Crichton.

COMPOSERS POKE FUN AT "NEW ART"

Past masters at the art of poking fun, Gilbert and Sullivan, incomparable comic-opera team, found in the ultra-aesthetic movement of the early eighties ample material to tickle their mental and musical funny-bones. Hence their operatic concoction "Patience," which, first produced in London in 1881, was an immediate and lasting success. The same opera, half a century later, has all the freshness and charm it must have had then, as will be witnessed b ythose who attend the performance of "Patience" at the Carmel Playhouse, commencing February 21st.

It appears that this so-called "new art" took sway of aesthetic-minded folk in the early eighties of the last century, coming after a long period of stuffy comfort and ugly ornament. It is easy to imagine how ridiculous the leaders of this ultra-aesthetic movement must have appeared to the practical mind. Gilbert, with his strong penchant for satire, gleefully set about composing his libretto, intent on poking fun at aesthetic shams. And his co-worker, Sullivan, was equal to carrying out the notion in his tuneful lyrics.

Monument To Lincoln Crumbling In Neglect

A monument commemorating the spot where Lincoln stood under Confederate fire, is disintegrating in Washington, D. C. Erected only 14 years ago, it is now badly defaced, is crumbling at the base and the bleak surrounding landscape is littered with rotting sacks and rubbish.

One afternoon in July, 1864, Abraham Lincoln stood out at what is now the intersection of 13th and Quackenbos Sts., N. W., in Washington, D. C., wrties Eddie Gilmore in the Washington Daily News. He was wearing his high plug hat and bullets buzzed about it.

Historians say the President didn't budge. He kept on watching the Union soldiers an dConfederates shoot at one another. The newspapers described it as one of the most fearless acts of the Emancipator. It took nerve, they reported.

In July, 1920, the Associated Survivors of the 6th Army Corps here erected a monument on the spot. It holds a bronze tablet, showing Lincoln standing between two soldiers. One was falling from a wound. The other is trying to take the President away to safety.

It must have been a pretty good monument; just 14 years ago.

Today you can't say much about it. It sits in what should be a clearing. The concrete about it has broken. Three of the four cannon balls that were a part of it have been stolen or rolled away. The grass around it is gone. The earth is washing away on two sides.

Ten feet away is a gin bottle. Less than that distance are a lot of rotting sacks and rubbish. About 100 feet away, some men are filling in a ditch and working on an extension of 13th St.

But with all the decay and rubbish, one thing stands out more poignantly than anythnig else; a broken phonograph record, lying close to the monument.

The title is, "Hallelujah, I'm a Bum."—National Tribune.

John Black Receives Termite Control License

You might not think soft pine wood a good, wholesome diet but termites do, and those little insects, sometimes called flying ants,, are probably undermining your building right now. And can they eat?

John Black, a Carmelite for the past 14 years, was in the Sun office yesterday and through our columns is announcing that he is licensed in termite control and will inspect your building free of charge.

The termites, according to Mr. Black, swarm like bees; when they settle, they lose their wings and crawl into a crevice in the wood, where the queens lay millions of eggs and the young live on the wood, leaving a pile of sawdust and crumbling foundations in their wake.

Sunset School

The subject of remodeling the Sunset school buildings to comply with the new rulings made after the Long Beach earthquake several months ago, occupied a large part of the evening at the monthly meeting of the trustees of Sunset school Tuesday.

A committee of five comprising Guy Koepp, Grant Wills, Miles Bain and Architects Collins and Ryland which was appointed at the last regular session had recommended that all changes be made in the buildings following the recommendations in the state engineer's report, and since there is not enough money on hand for this work, the matter was taken up with several different authorities as to how best the work could be accomplished.

The following letter from Attorney Noland is self-explanatory:

January 18, 1934
Sunset School,
Carmel, Calif.
Attention Clara N. Kellogg:
Dear Miss Kellogg:

I have your letter of January 17th in which you request my opinion regarding the remodelling and construction of your school buildings.

The law provides that the school trustees are personally liable for any injuries or damages resulting by virtue of the negligence of said trustees. Of course the question of whether the trustees have been negligent is a question of fact. If the school trustees have knowledge that the school building is not safe and something should happen that would result in injury or damage through faulty construction, the trustes, would, in my opinion, be considered negligent and undoubtedly would be personally liable for any injuries or damage. However, if there is not sufficient funds by which the trustees could repair or remodel the building t omake it safe and the trustees have done all in their power to make the building safe but could not do so because of lack of finances, it is my pinion that the court would not hold the trustees negligent, but in order for the trustees to show that they had not been negligent it would be necessary for them to show that they had done everything in their power to raise the neeessary finances. If there are not sufficient funds on hand to do the necessary work then of course it is necessary to raise more money. Under the present law the school district can expend only a sum amounting to five per cent over and above the amount expended the last preceding year. If this additional five per cent is not sufficient to take care of the necessary amount needed the proper course for the school board would be to call for an election asking for the right to expend more than five per cent. The law provides that a majority of voters of the district at an election duly called for that purpose can authorize the board to levy taes for an amount exceeding the five percent, anc to expend the same for the purposes for which the election was called.

If the board desires to hold such an election this should be done before the 1934-35 budget is made up. I suggest the Board immediately take this matter up and if they decide upon such an election that they proceed with it within the next month or so that the election could be held prior to the first of July.

If the boar ddesires to hold such an election I have all the necessary forms in my office and will be glad to assist your Board in every possible manner.

I would not recommend a bond election unless the amount necessary to be expended is a large amount and the Board desires to have the burden of paying the same over a considerable period of time.

Trusting that I have satisfactorily answered your questions, I am,

Very truly yours,
(Signed) HARRY NOLAND

An attempt will be made by the trustees to secure an estimate on the cost of the entire project so that an election may be held before the time limit expires and the people may say for themselves whether they wish t ospend this money on the suggested changes.

E. W. Taliaferro and wife who have been living in the Esther Garrett Teare cottage on Lincoln and Ninth have gone to San Francisco.

UNBALANCED YOUTH FRIGHTENS CITIZENS

When Mrs. O. W. Bardarson saw a man entering her room through a window last Sunday night, her cries brought her husband who caught the intruder and held him while she phoned for the police.

The man was found to be Stanley Walker, 20, who had been suffering from mental trouble but had recently been released from an institution in the care of his mother who brought him to Carmel thinking the climate might prove beneficial.

Judge Wood told Mrs. Walker Monday morning that she would have to take him away. The lad appeared not to be dangerous but to have a mania for entering homes. Previous to his entrance to the Bardarson home he was discovered on the roof of a neighboring house and in response to questions said he was looking for a match.
